Have you ever wondered why some people in business create massive success when others fail?

If you answered yes, let me explain ...

You see it's to do with the way their sub-conscious mind is programmed.

And by the way, it's not your fault that your sales aren't exploding to the level you deserve'.

Why?

Because until now, what I'm about to share has been kept a closely guarded secret for many years and for just the few rather than the many.

Let me introduce myself

Hi, my name is Gary Foster and I'm a business hypnotist and a black belt in judo who specialises in helping my clients tap into their inner, rich resources of their mind to boost their success, sell more, make more profit whilst helping others succeed too.

If you're like 99% of people in business you'll probably believe the 'harder you work' the more you'll make your business a success, however the business graveyard is full of broken dreams and bank balances because of this false notion.

Yes, false!

Hard work doesn't guarantee your success; smart work will. Look around you, at all the people you know 'should have made it' yet they seem to just drift from one bright shiny object to another, searching for that illusive magic wand.

I'm here to tell you 'It doesn't exist'

Instead, I stumbled upon the beauty of using direct hypnosis to create results consistently with the least amount of effort for both myself and my clients in the fields of sport and business.

Having personally broken 2 World Records (that's me below with my two World Record medals!) and smashed many sales targets easily by using the techniques I'm about to share with you!

Neuro-scientists are now understanding how the power of processing your positive experiences can make amazing changes in your behaviour when it comes to success and more importantly encouraging others to succeed too!

You don't need to be a professional hypnotist to enjoy these levels of success, because I've boiled down the very best of my 30+ years of professional hypnotherapy expertise into a simple, easy to listen to selection of audio programmes designed to explode your sales way above your competitors.

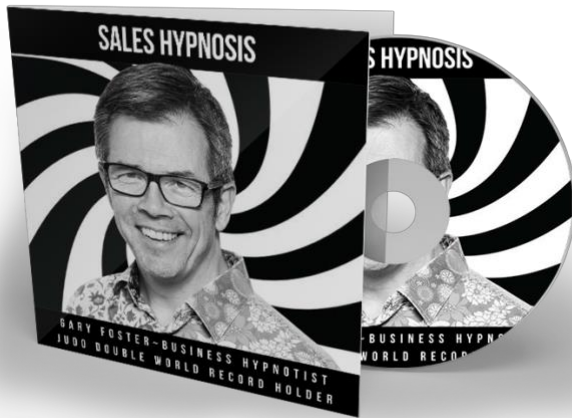

In fact ...

I call it, the Sales Explosion Programme

You're about to discover how easy it is to programme your mind for business boosting success in just a few minutes per day. So long as you're able to set aside the time for your success (yes, there is some effort required), you'll be rewarded with a flood of new, profitable business!

Here's Everything You Get

The 'Sales Hypnosis' Audio

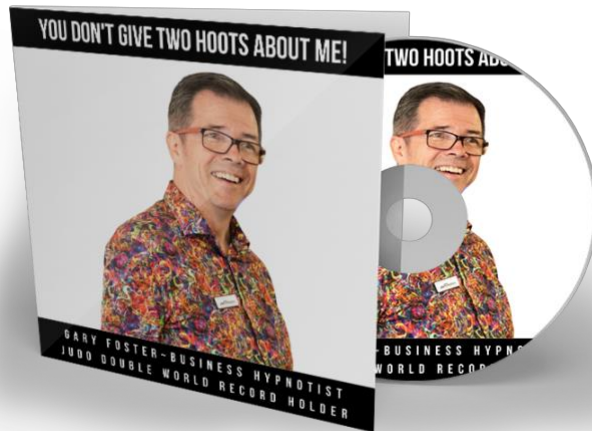

A professionally "studio" recorded, hypnosis session, designed to put you and your mind into 'super sales mode'.

Your recording contains subliminal suggestions for your success AND must NEVER be played in a moving vehicle or where you have to be in charge of a mechanical device - it's that powerful!

All you have to do is listen to it, once a day (best through headphones) over the next 10 days and watch your sales soar ... (£125 Value)

You Don't Give Two Hoots About Me Audio

One of the most popular fizzy drinks here, in the UK, is Vimto.

I was fortunate to be invited to take a tour of their manufacturing process and be introduced to their world beating attitude - hear my experience when I presented to the local Chamber of Commerce Business Breakfast Meeting.

Look out for the GEM Awards - great idea, worth modelling for sure! (£125 value - at least!)

Process your Positive Experiences Audio

This is where you get to listen in to a very special process that neuro-scientists have measured its success.

All you have to do is follow the very simple and easy mind exercise that I'll walk you through and in just 10 days, or less, you'll see a marked improvement in your ability to overcome objections and hurdles that in your past have got in the way of your business success. (£125 value - at least!)

90 Day 100% Money Back Guarantee

Before you go ahead and hit the 'Yes Gary, I want To Explode My Sales Now button' below I need to know that YOU'RE now totally comfortable and feeling secure. That's why I'm putting 100% of the risk squarely on my shoulders.

YOU can relax knowing that you are completely protected by my... 90 Day 100% Money Back Guarantee

(£95 Value - at least!)

Giving you a total value of £470

Everyone loves a deal, including me and that's part of the magic of selling

You see, I can justify putting a £470 value on my information because I have personally invested over £25,000 in training courses and workshops (possibly even more with the 1000's of books, CD's and videos I have in my library) along with the actual practical application of the knowledge I'm sharing with you with 1,000's of clients who have seen life transforming changes with my Rapid Results method over the past 30 years, consistently.

The aim of putting this programme together was to ensure you could begin to boost your business, your sales and your profits without having to pay hefty charges for coaching or consultancy. You will have access to the same 'Sales Hypnosis' session that clients have happily paid £125 for.

The presentation you get to listen in to, 'You Don't Give Two Hoots About Me' was part of a keynote I've given many times and charged meeting planners £5,000 for - and they happily paid the fee because it delivered the message to their audience they were looking for! And ...

The audio I recorded for you, called 'How to Process Your Positive Experiences' has been in the planning stages for many years, and you'll be delighted with the results you'll gain in your personal, business and recreational life when you master this simple but very powerful process.
